COO / VP OPERATIONS - TECH-ENABLED COMPANY

Operating executive with deep technology fluency and 25+ years leading business-critical functions across growth-stage companies, enterprise services, software delivery, customer operations, and technology-enabled operating environments. Has raised capital, owned P&L, launched service portfolios, built operating cadence and reporting systems, led turnarounds, and managed cross-functional execution across engineering, product, services, support, and customer-facing operations. Strong fit for COO, VP Operations, and broad business-operations leadership roles in software, SaaS, or tech-enabled companies where technical judgment and practical AI adoption improve execution.

CORE STRENGTHS

- Operating cadence, accountability, forecasting, planning, and execution management
- P&L leadership, margin improvement, business-model shifts, and turnaround work
- Cross-functional leadership across engineering, product, services, support, customer success, and operations
- Technology-enabled operating models, systems integration, reporting, and process design
- Workflow redesign, automation, and AI-enabled operating leverage
- Fundraising support, board-facing communication, vendor management, and M&A transitions
- Customer-facing operational leadership and service-delivery economics
